Parables and Fables: From Symbolism to Allegory? Parables and fables are easily confused with one another. Symbolism and allegory are similarly mixed-up in too many students' minds. Here's the difference. In common parlance, a parable is a story or short narrative designed to reveal allegorically some religious principle, moral lesson, psychological reality, or general truth. Rather than using ...

Difference Between a Fable & a Parable. Ted Hann. Home » Language & Lit. Fables and parables are both types of folk literature that are defined by a relatively simple story and a moral lesson. They both also have a strong history of an oral tradition dating back to ancient times. They were originally used in a didactic sense: storytelling to teach a lesson (as opposed to entertain). Fables ...
